

Being a Puppet.

Is when someone who has little or no understanding about an issue blindly accepts ideas from others around them.

E.g. Jane and Harry said that it should happen this way.

- Describe a time when you have thought this way.

- What is one thing you could start doing to avoid thinking this way?

- Why do you believe that thinking this way may have caused you to arrive at decisions which really were not logical?

