

PICTURES

How often do you walk past a picture every day and don't really take it in. Look at a picture for five minutes and count how many different colours there are and the shapes, shadings and emotions you see in it.

