

Professional Practice Support

TEACHER SELF REFLECTION

To improve the way we do things, it is very important for us to reflect on what we do and how we do it and compare our thoughts with those of our students.

In my teaching do I . . . ?
Show that I care about my students	Choose
Show that I am interested in the feelings of the class	Choose
Only discipline the class when they deserve it	Choose
Follow through on what I say I will do	Choose
Respect the rights of my students	Choose
Control the class fairly	Choose
Know the subject material well	Choose
Expect high standards from my students	Choose
Vary the way I teach to suit my students	Choose
Praise students when they do well	Choose
Find out what the class knows about a subject before beginning a new topic	Choose
Explain the topic clearly	Choose
Corrects and returns handed in learning quickly	Choose
Regularly let students know how they are going	Choose
Make the learning interesting and relate it to things they know	Choose
Contact parents about how their children are progressing	Choose
Encourage students to show what they know	Choose
Provide opportunities for the class to learn both individually and in different sized groups	Choose
Explain what we are going to learn for each topic	Choose
Encourage students to use computers in class and at home	Choose

Anything else I observed that may help: