

Name: _____

Tuck Everlasting

Chapters 10 -12

1. How was the Tuck's house different than Winnie's?

---

---

---

2. What do you think the author meant when she wrote, "And in the corner stood Tuck's forgotten shotgun." Why would his shotgun be forgotten?

---

---

3. Who saw the Tucks and Winnie outside of Treegap?

- |                               |                                      |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| a. the toad            | b. the man in the yellow suit |
| c. a group of children | d. Winnie's grandmother       |

4. Explain what Tuck's worry was if people found out about the spring in Treegap?

---

---

5. Based on your knowledge of the story, make a prediction about what happened to the Tuck's horse at the end of chapter 12.

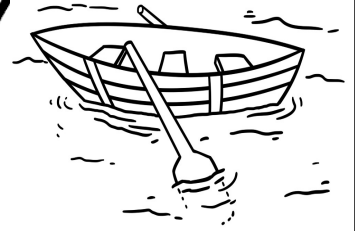

---

---

ANSWER KEY

Tuck Everlasting

Chapters 10 -12

1. How was the Tuck's house different than Winnie's?

The Tuck's house was different than Winnie's because Winnie grew up in a house that was extremely clean, orderly, and structured. The Tuck's house was very different. There were bits and pieces of things all over, plates of different shapes stacked high, dust and cobwebs. It was the polar opposite of hers.

2. What do you think the author meant when she wrote, "And in the corner stood Tuck's forgotten shotgun." Why would his shotgun be forgotten?

She said that because there was no need for a shotgun in the Tucks life. It's not as if anything can hurt them, so it no longer had a use.

3. Who saw the Tucks and Winnie outside of Treegap? b

a. the toad

b. the man in the yellow suit

c. a group of children

d. Winnie's grandmother

4. Explain what Tuck's worry was if people found out about the spring in Treegap?

Tuck's worry was if people found out there was a spring that made you live forever they would be running like mad to take drinks from it, and that would interrupt the normal circle of life. People wouldn't realize that living forever isn't necessarily a blessing.

5. Based on your knowledge of the story, make a prediction about what happened to the Tuck's horse at the end of chapter 12.

Answers will vary.