Chapters 16 -18

1. What made the constable have a strange feeling about the man in the yellow suit?

The constable wanted to know why the man in the yellow suit was so involved in the kidnapping. He even speculated maybe he had something to do with it because he didn't report the kidnapping to authorities right after it happened. Something seemed strange to him.

- 2. How did Winnie feel about the Tucks? d

- a. She hated them.
- b. She feared them.
- c. She was amused by them.
- d. She loved them.

- 3. While on the boat with Miles, Winnie decided she would keep the Tucks secret. What helped her to make that decision?

Miles tried explaining to Winnie that things must be born and die or the world would be over crowded. On the boat she saw a bunch of mosquitoes and started thinking about what Miles said. If mosquitoes kept living and having babies it would be terrible! She then decided the Tucks were right, no one could know about the spring. She would keep their secret.
