Winnie	Angus Tuck	Mae Tuck	Man in the yellow suit
Jesse Tuck	Miles Tuck	Winnie's grandma	The Constable

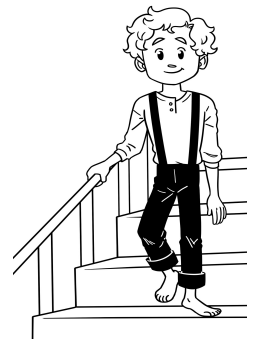

1. "Well, listen, how'd it be if you was to wait till you're seventeen, same age as me-heck, that's only six years off-and then you could go and drink some, and then you could go away with me!"

2. "It pains me to think how your ma, and pa will worry but there's just no way around it. We got to take you home with us. That's the plan."
_____
3. "It don't make sense. If I knowed how to climb back on the wheel, I'd do it in a minute. You can't have living without dying. So you can't call it living, what we got. We just are, we just be, like rocks beside the road."

4. "Good morning Mrs. Tuck. It is Mrs. Tuck isn't it. May I come in?"
_____
5. "It'd be better off if I could be like you, out in the open and making up my own mind. Do you know they've hardly ever let me out of this yard all by myself? I'll never be able to do anything important if I stay in here like this. I expect I'd better run away."
